The Real Russian Interference in US Politics

By Diana Johnstone, August 29, 2018

If Russia were trying to interfere in U.S. domestic politics, it wouldn’t be attempting to change the U.S. system but to prevent it from trying to change Russia’s, argues Diana Johnstone.

Trump’s Desperate Measures Against Iran Could Lead to US Isolation: Prof. Tim Anderson

By Prof. Tim Anderson and Tasnim News Agency, August 28, 2018

The new measures against Iran by the Trump administration, including the formation of an Iran Action Group, are measures of desperation. Washington has no real allies in this, just some countries which are afraid to contradict Washington. Other countries, which formerly backed the nuclear disarmament moves against Iran (notably Russia and China, but also some European countries) have abandoned the US, leaving it isolated. And that isolation is deepening because Washington is now threatening all its so-called allies.

Russia Is Buying Gold: Will It Save Russia From Dollar Sanctions? End of Dollar Hegemony?

By Peter Koenig and Sputnik, August 28, 2018

The fact that Russia is stocking up on gold is not new. Unfortunately, the reality is that there exists an "Israel Lobby" in many countries, all dedicated to advancing the agendas promoted by successive Israeli governments no matter what the actual interests of the host country might be.

John McCain's Imperial Complex

By Dr. Binoy Kampmark, August 29, 2018

For a politician, aspects of the hero are sketched out, crumples and creases ironed. In the case of the late Senator John McCain, his role as sober, stable legislator were underscored in a world of Trumpland's narcissistic chaos. His five-year stint a prisoner of war in that brutal school of re-education "Hanoi Hilton" constituted an important part of resume building in politics, and it was not forgotten.
