Israel, Don't Raise the Roof Beams High As You "Resettle" Lifta; Its Owners Will Return

By Rima Najjar, June 01, 2021

We are now witnessing shocks within Israel behind the Green Line, something that Israel had hitherto been able to contain. In the process, it pretended, along with much of the western world, that it is the "longest-lived democracy in the Middle East" and that only its continued occupation of the West Bank and its harsh blockade of Gaza undermine its "constitutional ideals"- ideals now exposed for what they've always been: Jewish supremacist in nature.

The Farmers' Protests and the Looting of India

By Asad Ismi, June 01, 2021

One month prior, in Canada, labour and community organizations took out a full-page advertisement in the Toronto Star voicing their support of the farmers. Despite only recently gaining attention in the West, the farmers' protests in India have been ongoing for over half a year, making them, by Time magazine's estimate, "the world's largest ongoing demonstration and perhaps the biggest in human history."

Recantations Are All the Rage. Israel Has Lost the Public Relations War

By Philip Girdi, June 01, 2021

Several things are happening simultaneously. Most important, Israel has lost the public opinion war in much of the world through its brutality during the recent attack on Gaza and it continues to lose ground even in the wake of a cease fire due to mass arrests of Palestinians and armed police intrusions in and around the al-Aqsa mosque.
