An Endless Stream of Scary Official Enemies

By Jacob G. Hornberger, June 20, 2022

Any government that is a national-security state needs big official enemies — scary ones, ones that will cause the citizenry to continue supporting not only the continued existence of a national-security state form of government but also ever-growing budgets for it and its army of voracious “defense” contractors.

St. Petersburg 2022 Forum Sets the Stage for the “War of Economic Corridors”

By Pepe Escobar, June 20, 2022

The Russian president noted how “EU losses due to sanctions against Russia” could exceed $400 billion per year, and that Europe’s high energy prices - something that actually started “in the third quarter of last year” - are due to “blindly believing in renewable sources.”

Western Media and Politicians Prefer to Ignore the Truth About Civilians Killed in Donetsk Shelling

By Eva Bartlett, June 20, 2022

Following intense Ukrainian shelling of Donetsk on June 13, some Western media sources, in tandem with outlets in Kiev, unsurprisingly claimed that the attack - which killed at least five civilians and struck a busy maternity hospital - was perpetrated by Russian forces. Why Moscow would launch rockets at its own allies wasn’t explained, nor would it make much sense.

By Zero Hedge, June 20, 2022

The Russian Foreign Ministry has responded to Lithuania’s partial blockade of Kaliningrad, writing in a statement that they consider the “provocative measures” to be “openly hostile” and warning that the Kremlin may take action to “protect its national interests.”

History: US Business Operations with Nazi Germany

By Shane Quinn, June 21, 2022

Among the Nazis’ first actions after taking power was to dismantle the German trade unions and labour power. By March 1933 the first concentration camp was erected at Dachau, soon to be followed by others, where numerous communists, socialists and other undesirables were interned. The German masses were thereafter transformed largely into devoted followers of Hitler, subjected regularly to Nazi propaganda; much of the techniques of which Gauleiter of Berlin Joseph Goebbels had learnt in the 1920s from Edward Bernays, the influential American propaganda merchant.

Kiev Plans to Ban Russian Culture

By Lucas Leiroz de Almeida, June 21, 2022

Once again, the Ukrainian government demonstrates that it is not interested in cooperating for peace, but in further intensifying its anti-Russian policies. Now, the Kiev Parliament has passed a bill to ban Russian music and literature, boosting the search for “cultural cancellation” against the Russian people.
