

Russiagate: Senate Intelligence Committee Believes Americans Voted for Trump because Putin influenced them to Vote for “Russia’s Candidate”

And Insults Trump Supporters At The Same Time

Are you stupid enough to believe that American voters elected Trump president because Vladimir Putin influenced them to vote for Russia’s candidate? The US Senate Intelligence (sic) Committee is that stupid. This collection of nitwits actually produced a report that a few ads allegedly placed online on Putin’s instructions, ads that did not cost one-hundredth of one percent of the huge sum spent by the candidates themselves, both national committees and everyone else, were decisive in influencing voters who never saw the ads in the first place or read or responded to tweets.

That a Senate Committee would expect anyone to believe such a far-fetched story shows that the Senate Intelligence (sic) Committee has no respect whatsoever for the people who elected President Trump, or, for that matter, for anyone else at home or abroad.

In the new Senate Intel Committee assessment released today, it says Russian interference of the 2016 US election was personally approved by Vladimir Putin. The report also finds Russia intended to help Trump and hurt Clinton. We need to have a new election, without interference.

BREAKING: Senate Intel Committee upholds the conclusion of the Intelligence Community that Russia developed a "clear preference" for Donald Trump in 2016 and sought to help him win the White House.

TRANSLATION: The damage being done to America is the result of a FASCIST COUP.

This Senate report is the most incredible BS I have every encountered in my life. There is no evidence whatsoever in the report. Only assertions. And most of these are based on "open-source" internet postings by trolls and bots financed by the military/security complex and Democratic Party.

What the report actually tells us is that no member of the Senate Intelligence Committee has enough intelligence or integrity to serve in the US Senate. It is the Senate Intelligence Committee that is a disgrace to America and to the entire human race.

RT has great fun with the collection of nitwits that comprise the Senate Intelligence Committee.

On this Fourth of July, how can anyone be a Proud American?
