In the last two days, we've seen three attacks that seem to be terror-related:

- A Tesla truck bombing in Las Vegas,
- a fatal vehicular assault attack in New Orleans and
- now a fatal night club shooting in Queens, NY.

In today's broadcast, I cover the details of what's happening and how you can protect yourself and be prepared for the expected wave of terror attacks across U.S. cities.

I also reveal two new music videos (and songs) that I just released, plus a special report on how to use AI technology to empower yourself with knowledge and creative expression.
