

The Cost of Wanting to Tell the Truth: Global Research Needs Your Support

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, September 16, 2019

Dear Readers,

Over the past year, largely due to changes in how information is distributed online, our finances have been hit hard. We currently run a monthly deficit: we cannot cover our monthly costs. In what effectively amounts to online censorship directed against the Independent media, Global Research has been “penalized” for wanting to “Tell the Truth”.

This year, we have been rallying all the help we can get in a campaign to turn things around and get us back on track. We are a small team largely dependent on the support of our readers, doing everything we can to take this platform forward. If you look to Global Research as a resource and value the articles we deliver, free of charge, we ask you to join us in this campaign: protect the future of independent media by making a donation or taking out a membership with us now!
