Dear Global Research Member and Newsletter Subscriber

In the course of the last week, the World has witnessed the terrorist attacks in Mumbai, resulting in the death of more than 150 people. The implications of this dramatic event are farreaching. Moreover, the Mumbai attacks serve to create political divisions between India and Pakistan.

Meanwhile financial markets have continued to tumble.

This issue of the Global Research E-Newsletter includes a selection of lead articles on a number of key issues:

-Unanswered questions regarding the Mumbai attacks,

-The formation of the Obama cabinet; analysis of “political continuity” under an Obama administration,

-The evolving humanitarian crisis in Palestine,

-The militarization of Sub-Saharan Africa, America’s hidden war in Somalia,

-The recruitment of “child soldiers” to fight America’s wars.

-Fraud and manipulation underlying the financial crisis,

-The social and economic backlash of the financial meltdown: impacts on people’s lives, international trade in potential jeopardy.

It is our hope that the endeavors of Global Research authors and staff, will contribute to curbing the tide of media disinformation, ultimately with a view to democratizing the financial system, eradicating poverty and and establishing an enduring World peace.

It is, therefore, important that the articles published by Global Research reach a broad readership.

While Global Research operates on a shoe string budget compared with the well-endowed establishment think tanks, we have more readers than the powerful Council on Foreign Relations \(CFR\) (see graph)

The response from our readers has been tremendous and we thank you for your feedback and encouragement. However, with increasing numbers turning to Global Research as their choice for alternative news, we ask that you make a donation of your choice so that we may continue to deliver the information that matters to you.

Consider the following:

-Globalresearch.ca received over 1.5 million visits in November (more than 50,000 visits a day);

-We have surpassed many mainstream media sites in total numbers of readers;

-Our daily E-Newsletter now reaches over 13,500 subscribers.

Please keep in mind that Global Research remains fully independent by not accepting money from public or private foundations.

If you unable to make a donation, you can help us by cross-posting and/or forwarding Global Research articles, sending them to your friends on your e-mail lists, posting them on internet blogs., etc. This will help us reach a broad readership.
