This article first published in June 2014 documents the nature of the Kiev regime which is supported by US-NATO.

It was updated on November 28, 2018.

What is happening in Ukraine has serious geopolitical implications. It could lead us into a World War III Scenario.

It is important that a peace process be initiated with a view to preventing escalation.

Global Research does not support Russia's invasion of Ukraine. A bilateral Peace Agreement is required.

Introductory Note and update

Following the Kerch Strait incident, a process of militarization of the Black Sea basin is ongoing. Martial law in Ukraine has been established.

US-NATO military aid is relentlessly channelled to the Ukraine regime, a coalition government integrated by Neo-Nazis.

American, Canadian and British special forces are involved in military training.

Most people do not realize that the Kiev regime includes a powerful Neo-Nazi faction, largely because the media never mentions it.

Andriy Parubiy who is currently president (chair) of the Ukrainian Parliament (Rada) (with executive functions within the government) is co-founder of the Neo-Nazi Social-National Party of Ukraine (subsequently renamed Svoboda).

Prior to becoming president (chair) of the Parliament, he was Secretary of the National Security and National Defense Committee (RNBOU) which oversees the Ministry of Defense, the Armed Forces, Law Enforcement, National Security and Intelligence.

Andriy Parubiy is a follower of Ukrainian Nazi Stepan Bandera, who collaborated in the mass murderer of Jews and Poles during World War II.

And Neo-Nazi leader Parubiy is routinely received with red carpet treatment in Canada, the US and the European Union. And the Western media applauds.

Military aid is channelled to the Armed Forces and Ukraine's National Guard.

Ukraine wants Canada to persuade U.S. to send weapons

Andriy Parubiy made the comments in an exclusive interview on Monday during a visit to Ottawa and Washington that's aimed at persuading Western countries to boost their support for Ukraine amid fading hopes for the latest ceasefire agreement. Ukraine's government has repeatedly asked the U.S., Canada and Europe to supply it with what it calls defensive weapons to help its military fight Russian-backed militants in eastern Ukraine.

Mr. Parubiy's visit to Ottawa included meetings with Foreign Affairs Minister Rob Nicholson and James Bezan, the parliamentary secretary to the defence minister, the Ukrainian embassy said. Mr. Parubiy was also scheduled to hold meetings with House of Commons Speaker Andrew Scheer and other MPs.

"Canada has been a kind of a leader in the world vis-à-vis Ukraine," Mr. Parubiy told The Globe and Mail through a translator. "Words and actions are the same in Canada, so it's kind of an example for the rest of the world with their Ukraine policy."

He said Ukraine would like to secure a political commitment from its allies to provide arms, adding that the technical details of which government can deliver which weapons could be worked out later. For example, he said, the U.S. has high-quality weapons and European countries would be in a better position to provide items such as drones and communications equipment.

The Canadian media fail to mention that the so-called defensive weapons will also be used by Ukraine's National Guard's Azov battalion which is under the control of the Neo-Nazi faction.

Neo-Nazi Training

Another element which has casually been ignored by the Western media are the Neo-Nazi Training camps for young children under the auspices of the Azov battalion of the National Guard (funded by the US and Canada).

Do they know who they are?

Do we know who they are?

There are "ultra-conservatives" in the Kiev government but "they are not Neo-Nazis." According to the Western media, its all part of "a relentless Kremlin-driven propaganda offensive that uses World War II-era terms and imagery".

The alternative media, however, has acknowledged that the Kiev regime is "a loose Centre-Right coalition" integrated by two Neo-Nazi parties (Svoboda and Right Sector) "but it is not a Neo-Nazi government". Both Svoboda and Right Sector display Nazi emblems.

Is it a loose coalition? If a government were to officially display Nazi emblems, does that not suggest that the government is committed to Nazi ideology?

*When the Kiev regime "officially" displays Nazi emblems to identify entities of their National Security and Military apparatus one would normally assume that it is a Neo-Nazi government.

Below is the Nazi emblem of the National Guard [Національна гвардія України] which is defined as Reserves of the Ukrainian Armed Forces. They operate under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. The National Guard is part of the so-called “Internal Troops of Ukraine.” The emblem is a stylized swastika (see below).

Imagine what would happen if the US National Guard were to display swastika-like symbols.

Of significance, the National Guard of Ukraine is directly financed by the Obama administration, with a view to protecting American style democracy in Ukraine.

Unknown to the American public, the US government is channeling financial support, weapons and training to a Neo-Nazi entity.

Nobody in America knows about it because the use of the words “Neo-Nazi” and “Fascist” in relation to Ukraine is a taboo. They have been excluded from the lexicon of investigative reporting. In media reports they have been replaced by “Ultra-conservative” “Extreme Right” and “Nationalist”.

Another entity -which is part of The Ukraine National Guard- is The Azov Battalion (Батальйон Азов). The Azov Battalion -which displays the Nazi SS emblem- (below left) is described by the Kiev regime as “a volunteer battalion of territorial defense”. It’s a National Guard battalion under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. Officially based in Berdyank on the Sea of Azov, it was formed by the regime to fight the opposition insurgency in Eastern and Southern Ukraine. It is also financed by the US administration.

Emblem of the Azov Battalion formed by Kiev's junta.

Nazi Black Sun.

Emblem of the SS Division Das Reich.

These militia bearing the Nazi SS emblem are sponsored by Ukraine's Ministry of Internal Affairs, equivalent to America's Department of Homeland Security.

They are casually referred to as "Freedom fighters".

Its all for a good cause. "Democracy is the endgame".

In the words of the New York Times, "The United States and the European Union have embraced the revolution here [Ukraine] as another flowering of democracy, a blow to authoritarianism and kleptocracy in the former Soviet space." (NYTimes.com, March 1, 2014).

It goes without saying that "support" to the formation of a government in the Ukraine with "Neo-Nazi leanings" does not in any way imply the development of "fascist tendencies" within the White House, the State Department and the US Congress.
