

The Kim-Trump Summit. Geopolitical Implications

By Prof Michel Chossudovsky and Michael Welch

Global Research, June 15, 2018

In this interview recorded the morning after U.S. President Trump's 'historic' meeting with Chairman Kim Jong-Un of the Democratic Republic of Korea, Professor Michel Chossudovsky of the Centre for Research on Globalization gives his assessment of the meeting, outlines the threat of a reunified Korean peninsula to U.S. military and economic interests, comments on the coincidence of the G7 and other international summits taking place in the same week, and elaborates on the cross-cutting economic alliances which are challenging U.S. autonomy in the region.
