Despite numerous inconsistencies in the official UK government narrative and police reports, the “False Flag” question mark has largely disappeared from the realm of public debate.

Consider this:

- Since 9/11 – and increasingly so – any mass event in the West, notably in Europe and the US, like the pop concert by US singer Ariana Grande in Manchester on 22 May, would be cordoned-off and super secured. How can the terrorist with his artisan bomb (under the arm or under his belt?) get through security? In any case, he is conveniently dead, another witness done away with.
- It is a mystery, how the ‘perpetrator’ was identified in the US, by an unnamed source, when the murderous explosion happened in Manchester, some 8,000 km across the Atlantic – and, when – most important – the ‘suicide bomber’ left again his by now ‘legendary ID’ behind, his plastic bank card – at the crime scene – not in the US?
- Alone the fact – or the supposed fact – that the young Muslim murderer left his notorious ID behind, has become a ridiculous pattern which not even the staunchest supporter of the mainstream reports can ignore. Or can he? How come hardly anybody of the public at large questions such nonsense?
- Terror drills took place in several UK cities shortly before the 22 May Manchester concert explosion. This is a typical pattern seen just before other ‘terror’ scenes, i.e. the Boston Marathon bombing.

Are there still any blue-eyed doubters out there? Those who bask in their comfort zone, undisturbed by facts, rather believing a lie than the truth? – Confronting the truth means often confronting your own life, and that is for most people hard. Admitting that your life has been a farce, because you have always believed in a farce and never sought the truth, even though you knew, or felt it in the back of your mind, the truth was right there, but the comfortable lie and deceit is easier to swallow than the hard and inconvenient reality.

Critics and pundits who believe that these ‘terror’ attacks are blowbacks from our western wars – think again. ISIS / Daesh, Al-Qaeda and whatever else these Islamic terror groups are called, are the creation of the west, i.e. CIA, MI6, Mossad. They are basically funded by Washington, Israel, Saudi Arabia, other Gulf Kingdoms, and Turkey.

What is the role of these secret services? Are these horrific killings under the guise of an Islamic ‘terror attack’, being used as a pretext and a justification, so that the Western powers can engage in more wars, more atrocities, more killings in the Middle East, and wherever else it pleases them. That's what's called 'False Flags'.

We, the People, must wake up to these facts. Only conscious awareness may eventually stop them. International law is coopted and corrupted by the swamp of the establishment. As long as we don't have a Nuremberg-type justice system that pursues and puts away these war instigators, western societies will be subjugated to an ever increasing police state apparatus.
