Skyhorse Publisher Tony Lyons explains how Robert Kennedy's THE REAL ANTHONY FAUCI sold 1 million copies while heavily censored, recounting his exchange with the NY Times as an example, and explains why he publishes politically incorrect books.

According to Lyons,

"There's a real corporate capture in the United States where all of these journalists are basically not doing their jobs, the government is not doing their jobs, both are just kind of working for the pharmaceutical companies and are not even willing to listen to arguments. ... They have this pre-planned hit pieces that attack the concept and the author, ignore the book and the arguments."
