Michel Chossudovsky will be speaking at the Beit Zatoun Cultural Centre in Toronto,

Wednesday, October 5 @ 7:00 pm - 9:30 pm

The world community is being held hostage by the American military agenda and the implications of its new "tactical" nuclear weapons.

Any one of the many flashpoints around the Middle East, China, North Korea, and Russia's borders could precipitate a situation that threatens the future of humanity.

Michel Chossudovsky is Professor Emeritus of Economics at the University of Ottawa and the director of the Centre for Research on Globalization, a cutting-edge, independent research and media organization at: www.globalresearch.ca.

Chossudovsky has written: The Globalization of Poverty and The New World Order, America's "War on Terrorism", Towards a World War III Scenario: The Dangers of Nuclear War and his latest: The Globalization of War: America's Long War against Humanity.

“The world is at a dangerous crossroads. The United States and its allies have launched a military adventure which threatens the future of humanity.

Under a global military agenda, the actions undertaken by the Western military alliance (U.S.-NATO-Israel) in Afghanistan, Libya, Yemen, Pakistan, Palestine, Ukraine, Syria and Iraq are coordinated at the highest levels of the military hierarchy. We are not dealing with piecemeal military and intelligence operations. Major military and covert intelligence operations are being undertaken simultaneously in the Middle East, Eastern Europe, sub-Saharan Africa, Central Asia and the Asia Pacific region.

The current situation is all the more critical inasmuch as a US-NATO war on Russia, China and Iran is part of the US presidential election debate. It is presented as a political and military option to Western public opinion.”

“The United States of America is not fighting the terrorists in Syria.

The Obama administration, with the support of its allies including Turkey and Saudi Arabia, is supporting the Islamic State (ISIS Daesh)

Obama's counterterrorism campaign in Syria and Iraq is bogus."
