The Deputy Speaker of Ukraine's parliament, Andriy Parubiy, who had been the co-founder of the Nazi-inspired Social Nationalist Party of Ukraine, met in Washington on Wednesday, February 25th, with members of the U.S. House and Senate who support his request that the U.S. Government donate weapons to his virtually bankrupt Government. Parubiy also visited with the Pentagon.

Weapons are needed by his Government because his Government is engaged in a civil war against the residents in the area of Ukraine that had voted 90% for the former Ukrainian President, Viktor Yanukovich, whom Parubiy himself (when he was called "the Mayor of Maidan") led to overthrow in a violent February 2014 coup.

"Andriy Parubiy together with Svoboda party leader Oleh Tyahnybok is a follower of Ukrainian Nazi Stepan Bandera, who collaborated in the mass murderer of Jews and Poles during World War II."

According to a recent report by Gabriel Gatehouse of the BBC, witness testimony and photographic evidence both conflict with Parubiy's account of how the overthrow a year ago occurred. The United States Government strongly supported Yanukovich's overthrow, and denies that it was a coup. The Obama Administration calls it an expression of Ukrainian democracy, and says that the replacement Government was "duly elected" \(though by whom was left unsaid by Mr. Obama\), and that when elections for a new Ukrainian President were held in northwest Ukraine on 25 May 2014, in which no one in the rebelling region participated, the residents in the rebelling region were terrorists if they refused to accept the election's winner as being their President. The residents still refused to accept the winner of that election as being their leader. The Government, on 2 May 2014, massacred an estimated 100+ peaceful demonstrators against the Government, in Odessa, and sent troops into the southeast to take over their local governments, and so the civil war started. Mr. Parubiy was a member of the small team that planned the Odessa massacre.

The residents in the area of Ukraine that is being bombed and even firebombed by Parubiy's Government had opposed the overthrow, because they had voted 90% for the person who was being overthrown; they did not feel that an imposed new leader would be acceptable to them. The continued bombing of them by the replacement Government has thus-far failed to persuade the residents there to support Parubiy's Government; and, so, those residents have declared their region to be no longer a part of Ukraine. Ukraine's President, Petro Poroshenko, disagrees; he says that they have no right to do that and that they are therefore 'terrorists' for seceding from Ukraine. The United States Government supports that position, and Congress voted more than 98% for it.

However, U.S. President Barack Obama, whose Administration ran that coup and actually

selected the leader of the interim government to replace Yanukovych, Ukraine's current Prime Minister Arseniy Yatsenyuk, hasn't yet decided whether to send Ukraine more weapons than he has already sent.

Canada's Parliament held a Reception, 24 Feb. 2015, for Neo-Nazi Leader Parubiy.
