Paris: The USA, France and Great Britain now have military assets in the Mediterranean.

France has decided to send the Mistral, its helicopter-carrier, which, according to the Defense Ministry will contribute to evacuation of thousands of Egyptians.

In the meantime two American vessels entered the Mediterranean today, the USS Kearsarge and the USS Ponce, which is carrying 800 marines as well as a fleet of helicopters and a medical crew. The vessels sailed up the Suez Canal towards the coasts of Libya.
