This week's Global Research News Hour will be a live broadcast to raise funds for radio station CKUW. It will feature interviews and discussion promoting the virtues of independent, non-commercial media. Tune in Friday February 13 at 1 pm Winnipeg time (2:00pm EST/ 7:00pm GMT). Stream live here.

Since its debut in the fall of 2012, the newly revamped Global Research News Hour has aired close to one hundred episodes. It has been picked up by several community radio stations across North America!

As regular listeners are aware, the programme has made strides in tackling diverse topics from 9/11 Truth, to the dynamics of the Israel-Palestine conflict, to the role of US/NATO (as opposed to Russia) in instigating conflict in Ukraine, to the role of so-called free trade agreements in suppressing the popular will to the advantage of elites, to the origins of Al Qaeda and ISIL, to the environmental crisis.

The Global Research News Hour takes pride in getting these alternative perspectives beyond the internet and taking them to the public airwaves.

CKUW is the campus-based radio station which hosts the GRNH. CKUW broadcasts at 95.9 MHz on the FM band and is based at the University of Winnipeg in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

CKUW is now one of the few stations in Canada to operate completely without any ad revenue shaping its news content. In order to pay for the equipment and operating expenses that make it possible to put together the programme, the station must turn to its loyal listeners for revenue.
