A decision has been made in principle to demilitarize the village of Shirokino and to pull back medium weapons having calibres under 100 mm has been agreed at the Contract Group level, Russia's OSCE envoy Andrey Kelin told the media on Thursday. "The fundamental agreement does exist. Now the details are to be looked into," Kelin said. The military sub-group hopes Kiev's paramilitary entities of Nazis such as Azov, Donbass battalions will follow accepted decisions. We aren't so sure.

Meanwhile, Ukrainian media reported that big bad DPR militia shelled peaceful fortification facilities of Kiev's army around town Gorlovka with MLRS Grad. Following UNIAN report 2 Porosheko's super soldiers are dead, 9 are injured. However, honest Ukrainian journalists have forgotten to explain why pro-Kiev military have built fortifications around DPR's town. The only released proof of MLRS shelling by DPR militia is this photo, therefore the most probable case is that it was Kiev's attempt to attack in Gorlovka sector of frontline.
