In this latest and perhaps so far most revealing and comprehensive – and foremost – hopeful interview with Maria Zeee on Rumble (MUST SEE – 57 min. video below), Dr. Fuellmich of the German Corona Investigative Committee explains in detail what the Committee’s first lawsuit will do. Dr. Fuellmich says many people would like to call it Nuremberg 2.0, but for him it is more of a people’s trial than a Nuremberg type tribunal.

Among the first ones to be on trial are Bill Gates, Anthony Fauci, Dr. Tedros, General Director of WHO and Mr. Christian Drosten, the man who pushed and promoted the useless PCR test no end – and still does, even after WHO and CDC have said the test is not valid for detecting viral diseases, including covid.

In this video interview Dr. Fuellmich also talks about spirituality, he believes – and I fully share his belief – that spirituality will play an important role in humanity’s evolving and winning this case; in not giving up and in a future new society which Reiner believes will be based on local or regional societies, with local supplies, and regional trade.

It is also my firm belief that our – humanity’s – new beginning will be based on local production for local consumption with local sovereign money and banking systems and regional trade based on comparative advantages.

Dr. Fuellmich expressed so much hope, and with his explanations on how far the work of his Corona Investigative Committee has come, he expects that about 30% of the population are already awake, can no longer be fooled, and another 40% are in the process of waking up – demonstrating throughout Europe, what has so far been mostly hidden by the mainstream media, but cannot much longer be silenced.

This one-hour interview is a game changer, an interview of hope – tremendous hope enhanced by spiritual force, that indeed the tide may be turning – irreversibly turning.
