

The U.S. seems intent on causing a major conflagration, whether it's with Russia or China.

Following ruling class member, Nancy Pelosi's visit to Taiwan, relations between the U.S. and China cratered.

While formally following the One-China policy and recognizing Beijing's sovereignty over the island, Washington has actively supported Taipei, including by selling it arms. Both Washington and Beijing have repeatedly accused each other of destabilizing the situation in the Taiwan Strait. Last Friday, Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi accused the US of "stabbing China in the back," in a phone call with US Secretary of State Antony Blinken. -RT

The war mongers are doing everything they can to see that another world war is ignited. It's up to us to say "no" and stop adding fuel to their fires by agreeing to be cannon fodder in their sociopathic games of control, domination, and enslavement.

The path to freedom involves waking up at all levels. Those who start wars, are not the ones who fight the wars.
