Looks like the USA has more terrorist attacks in the pipeline.

US media is now preparing the global public that more terror will emerge under the US cover of “ISIS-K”.

Moscow rampage reveals ambition, deadly reach of ISIS successor groups

“The Islamic State quickly claimed responsibility for Friday’s rampage through the Crocus City Hall concert venue in Krasnogorsk, a few miles west of central Moscow. U.S. counterterrorism officials believe it was ISIS-K, specifically, that recruited the four gunmen who fired automatic weapons at concertgoers before setting fire to the building, killing at least 139 in one of the deadliest terrorist attacks in the history of modern Russia.

More attacks may be coming, counterterrorism officials warn. In a development that has been largely overshadowed by the conflicts in Ukraine and Gaza, ISIS-K and other regional groups have been expanding in size and ambition in recent years.” (Joby Warrick, Robyn Dixon and Souad Mekhennet, The Washington Post, March 25, 2024)

This is typical of US-Western security services. If their cover story and front-organizations are being revealed, they don’t fold but double down on them to keep them running.

As doubt rises in Russia and the world about the “ISIS-K” as the real perpetrator behind the heinous attack on Crocus City Hall in Moscow, the CIA will organize new terror inside and outside of Russia to “prove” that “ISIS-K” is a real thing outside US control. At the same time, the CIA has unleashed the biggest US mainstream media like Washington Post and the Wall Street Journal to ridicule Russia and Putin that they couldn’t prevent the attacks and for pointing to the real western perpetrators behind “ISIS-K”.

When Vladimir Putin finally spoke about the worst terrorist attack to hit Russia in 20 years, he swept over the glaring failure of his security state to prevent the assault, which left at least 137 dead, despite a clear warning from the United States on March 7 that a strike on a concert hall could be imminent.

He also made no reference to the Islamic State, which claimed responsibility for the attack at the Crocus City concert hall on Friday and which Putin denounced repeatedly as an enemy throughout Russia's long military intervention in Syria. In 2017, Putin declared victory over the Islamic State, also known as ISIS.

Former UK security insider Alastair Crooke has revealed that “ISIS-K” is an American creation. Listen to Alastair Crooke explaining that “ISIS-K” is not real but just a US cover organization:

The US “fighting terror” is a lie.

Like the US created Taliban, Al Qaeda, Al Nusra, and other extremist groups, the US created “ISIS-K” to attack US enemies. For the US, terror is really good, as long as it hits US enemies and doesn't come back to the USA itself.

At first, it seemed overwhelming to understand that the US really engages such violent extremism and terrorism – but the trail of the US on the terror path is overwhelming.

The US supported and used Nazis to gain control over Ukraine in 2014.

That was openly documented in Western media at the time, though it has later been censored. For 4 years, the US let the ISIS “Khalifat” in Syria and Iraq export enormous amounts of oil via clearly visible tanker convoys through Syria to Türkiye to finance ISIS fighting Al Assad.

That ISIS also used its oil money to finance terror in Paris, Madrid, and Berlin didn't bother the Americans.

The CIA even organized a cover story in one of the big US media that it was so “difficult” for the US to stop ISIS' enormous oil exports – pure disinformation from the CIA to whitewash the US from its support of ISIS.

Only when Russia entered Syria, was the industrial ISIS oil export bombed away. In a few weeks, Russia stopped the ISIS oil export which the US had let ISIS do for 4 years. The ISIS oil was sold in Türkiye via the highest ranking people, further indicating that the US also had a role in the further distribution of the oil financing ISIS' deadly expansion and atrocities. At the same time, the US agreed to support Al Qaeda in Syria, also against Al Assad, just using the new name of Al Nusra. New name, same (US) thing.

And for years, the US has used Ukraine to shelter top ISIS leaders and give them genuine Ukrainian passports with false identities, even as they continued directing their international terrorism from Ukrainian soil and under the eyes of Ukraine's security Service SBU. This was published in 2019 in the UK, when CIA-SBU ties were firmly established. See this.

The SBU, according to US media, has been built from scratch by the CIA. The predecessor of the SBU before the Nazi coup in 2014 had too many contacts with Russia, according to US opinion. So the US appointed its current leader Budanov as chief of a new SBU and led Budanov to build up and staff the new, now current, SBU from scratch.

Rest assured, that all Western security services are involved in this ring of terror involving Nazis and Islamic terrorists alike.
