On October 28, ‘moderate rebels’ and their supporters from eastern Aleppo showed their real face one more time. Encouraged by the Jabhat Fatah al-Sham (formerly Jabhat al-Nusra, the Syrian al-Qaeda branch) attack on the Syrian government forces in western Aleppo, they confirmed their support to al-Nusra, waving the terrorist group’s flags and symbols.

If there was some ‘moderate opposition’ in eastern Aleppo, it remained silent.
