On October 22, 2008, Yukihiisa Fujita, Congressman for the Democratic Party of Japan made a 20 minute speech on the floor of the Japanese Diet or House of Representatives. For the third time this year he directly questioned the official version of 9/11

At the same time he called on the government to stop all support for the US-led military operations.

After presenting reports of heavy civilian and military losses in Iraq and Afghanistan he went on to describe the Kucinich impeachment debate in US-Congress and its wide support by representatives of the House. In detail he listed the particular reasons for impeachment, that US-Congressman Dennis Kucinich presented to congress this summer. He also reported on Ron Pauls demands for impeachment and new 9/11 investigations.

Fujita emphasized that there was never an official police investigation into the deaths of the 24 Japanese citizens who were killed on 9/11; he then talked about questions put forward by Japanese victims’ families of 9/11 to former Prime Minister Koshimizu and asked why the government never responded.

This time there was no public broadcast of his 20 minute speech on NHK television. It was the third time since January, that Yukihiisa Fujita voiced his doubts about 9/11 on the floor of the Japanese parliament.

Fujita is a member of the Democratic Party of Japan which is the main opposition party, holding a majority in the Upper House of Parliament and has 36 % of the seats in the Lower House, the more powerful house. Mr. Fujita`s calls for a new investigation are backed by his party leadership. He made also presentations to members of other parties.

Fujita also took part in a 9/11 truth conference at the EU Parliament in Brussels February 2008 which was hosted by Italian MEP Giullietto Chiesa, who recently appeared in a Panel discussion on Russian State TV, after his 9/11 documentary aired.

Fujita said recently in an interview: "This is something Parliamentarians of various countries could ask - I was in Europe meeting with European MP's and they are also thinking about asking the UN to investigate, so these kind of efforts need to be done internationally," he added, that he had visited eleven different European countries in an attempt to garner support for the move.

Fujita personally visited the former President of Germany's Bundesbank, Ernst Welteke, who admitted that suspicious insider trading on American and United Airlines did take place immediately before 9/11.
