This video vividly describes economic collapse and the plight of poverty in Canada, without however focussing on the underlying causes, nor the historical context.

Remember the March 11, 2020 Lockdown. Destabilizing the social, political and economic structure of 190 sovereign countries cannot constitute a "solution" to combating the virus.

The Lockdown consisted in "The confinement of the labor force" coupled with "The paralysis of the workplace". Economics 101. I ask my students. What Happens?

Chaos of the Real Economy.

The March 11, 2020 Lockdown initiated a process of economic and social crisis Worldwide. It has contributed to a wave of bankruptcies and poverty.

The unspoken truth is that a non-existent pandemic launched in March 2020 has provided a pretext and a justification to precipitate the entire planet into a spiral of mass unemployment, bankruptcy, extreme poverty and despair.

Canada is going through an economic collapse.

Food charities have a waitlist.

Is there any sign of utter economic collapse than people who cannot afford to feed themselves?

Why is this happening?
