Join us for an insightful 1-on-1 interview featuring Michelle Leduc Catlin and Professor Michel Chossudovsky as they delve into his testimony from an economics perspective. In this engaging conversation, Professor Chossudovsky challenges the prevailing narrative, highlighting his belief that there is no pandemic and shedding light on the initial announcement of the pandemic, which reported ~120 cases in Canada according to the W.H.O.

During the interview, Professor Chossudovsky explores the impact of lockdown measures, arguing that they contribute to economic destabilization and undermine civil society. This thought-provoking discussion offers a unique perspective on the current global situation.

Bill Gates, for example, knew in advance what Tedros was going to announce. "I'm sure about this," he said. "It's probably him [Gates] who told him [Tedros] what to say ... People who make money with speculation [on the stock exchange], they know in advance ...

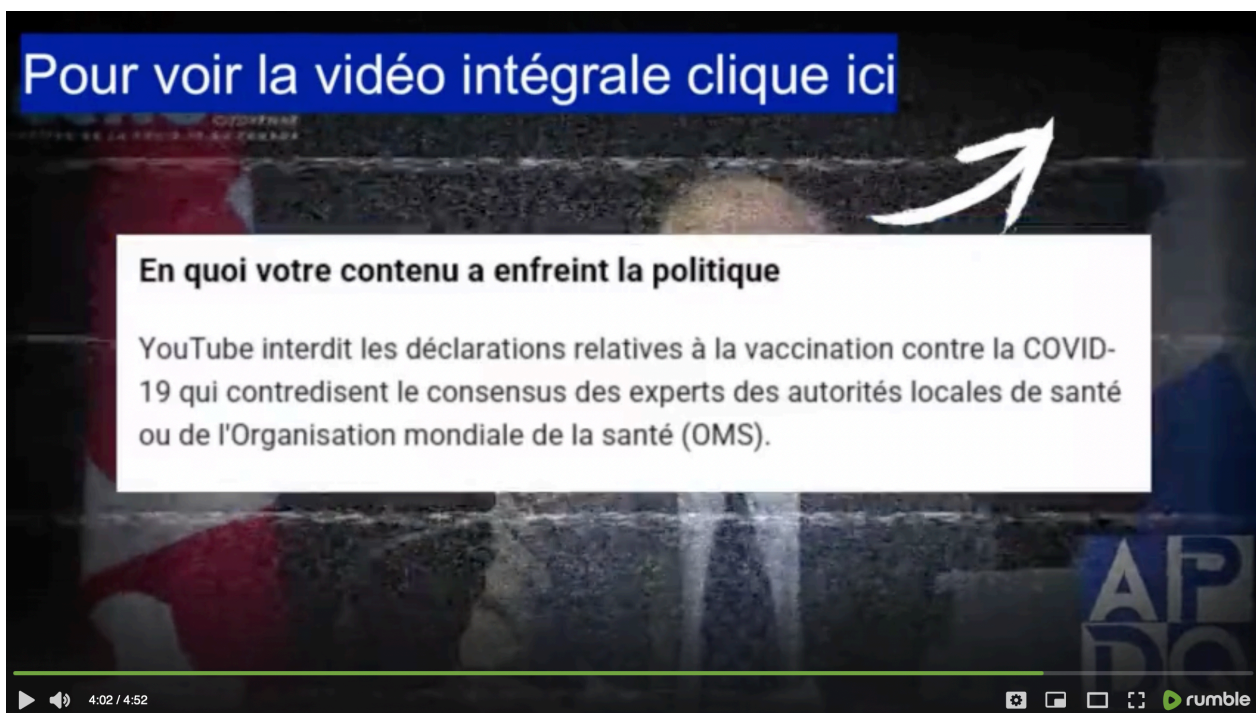

he knew in advance what Tedros was about to say and it's clear, that day he made a fortune. It's not only him, it's the people around him [as well]." Prof. Chossudovsky named BlackRock and Rockefeller as examples of others who were guilty of insider trading

"If they were to profit from the crash they would have had to short shares - or at least sell actual shares before the crash. Do you have data to show this?"

The Worldwide Corona Crisis, Global Coup d'Etat Against Humanity

by Michel Chossudovsky

Michel Chossudovsky reviews in detail how this insidious project “destroys people’s lives”. He provides a comprehensive analysis of everything you need to know about the “pandemic” — from the medical dimensions to the economic and social repercussions, political underpinnings, and mental and psychological impacts.

“My objective as an author is to inform people worldwide and refute the official narrative which has been used as a justification to destabilize the economic and social fabric of entire countries, followed by the imposition of the “deadly” COVID-19 “vaccine”. This crisis affects humanity in its entirety: almost 8 billion people. We stand in solidarity with our fellow human beings and our children worldwide. Truth is a powerful instrument.”
