After being assigned to cover treatments being used at a Houston hospital, Hecker’s bosses at Fox censored a physician’s comment in her report about hydroxychloroquine being part of his successful treatment of covid patients.

Shocked, Hecker pushed back and began recording conversations with her bosses, capturing video of them telling her to cease and desist reporting on hydroxychloroquine, explaining why she was being censored, and discussing false claims they made in a warning letter they sent to her before she was fired.
