Video: Justin Trudeau Braging About Bribing the Media

In the video below Trudeau points to the Need to “Override the Fundamental Rights of a Minority”

Video: Justin Trudeau on the Need to Violate Fundamental Rights

The “Fact Checkers” claim that Trudeau’s statement in the above video is “taken out of context”. I am not convinced!

The issue is not what Trudeau is saying but what he is doing as a duly elected Prime Minister of Canada’s parliamentary democracy.

The decisions which he has already taken against Canadians including the lockdowns, the imposition of the vaccine passport, labour rights, the suspension of the right to travel both within Canada and abroad, etc etc constitute blatant violations of fundamental rights.

If you are not convinced have a look at the following video in which The Prime Minister of Canada depicts the non-vaccinated as racists and misogynists.

“They do not believe in science says Trudeau”.

The latter statement also suggests that the Prime Minister of Canada is ignorant regarding the extensive scientific evidence pertaining to the mRNA vaccine, including the patterns of vaccine related mortality and morbidity.

Trudeau Calls the Unvaccinated Racists and Misogynistic Extremists

Comments (Source WS)

“I actually find him to be misogynistic as I personally do not like being told what to do with my body by a powerful male stranger. Trudeau is a man-child. He’s pushing 50 years and still looks about 12 years old, as if his emotional development was stunted around that age. He’s also over-groomed and has bad taste in socks.”

“The biggest issue isn’t what he said this, it is that he feels safe to say this on public television. There have been several times when JT has said things that are horrendous in nature but he says them anyway and feels safe to say it and not have his career suffer.”

“I’m now cracking up laughing, on a daily basis, at what these politicians and political leaders like him are coming out with. It’s hilarious. How anybody can take any of this nonsense seriously any more is beyond me.”

“As I cannot speak French, I have to trust the interpretation of what he said. If he indeed said what the headline indicates, we must all bow our heads in shame that he is the PM of Canada. What a new low for JT.”

And Now The Smoking Gun Question: Has Prime Minister Trudeau been Vaccinated?

Does Justin Trudeau Belong to that Minority of Unvaccinated Canadians Whose “Fundamental Rights” are being Violated?

A Registered Nurse (RN) has carefully reviewed the first video of Prime Minister Trudeau and his wife’s vaccination jab which was broadcast on network TV. Reporters were present. It was a carefully planned public relations event.
