Il giorno prima che il Trattato sulla proibizione delle armi nucleari venisse aperto alla firma alle Nazioni Unite, alla Camera dei deputati è stata approvata il 19 settembre, a grande maggioranza (296 contro 72 e 56 astenuti), una mozione Pd a firma Moscatò e altri. Essa impegna il governo a «continuare a perseguire l'obiettivo di un mondo privo di armi nucleari attraverso la centralità del Trattato di non-proliferazione (Tnp), valutando, compatibilmente con gli obblighi assunti in sede di Alleanza atlantica, la possibilità di aderire al Trattato per vietare le armi nucleari, approvato dall'Assemblea generale dell'Onu».
