As readers know, I have wondered how the ruling elite are going to get their puppet Biden reelected.

His own Justice Department cleared him of charges the Justice Department is pressing against Trump for having national security documents in his unauthorized possession by ruling that President Biden is too mentally incompetent to stand trial.

No one expects Biden to be able to complete four more years in the White House. The Washington Post Kathleen Parker says that in view of Kamala Harris's lack of success as VP, voters are discouraged by her likely succession to the presidency.

Parker says that for Biden to win, he has to have a VP voters can have confidence in as President.

Parker describes the ruling elite's view:

"The Kamala conundrum comes down to this: She was picked because she was Black and female, a combo tantamount to job security. Now that she has become a burden to the Democratic ticket, Biden can't fire her. He can't risk alienating his base. Full stop. The seriousness of this situation can't be overstated. Biden's diminishing faculties, notwithstanding his relatively successful State of the Union address, and his increasing physical frailty are concerning.

"Every honest person knows he's not in top form. A recent New York Times poll found that 73 percent of registered voters believe Biden is too old to be the nation's top executive. This includes 61 percent of those who voted for him in 2020.

“Her performance as second in command has been disappointing, to say the least. Americans have taken note. Though Democrats unsurprisingly like her more than Republicans do, a recent analysis by FiveThirtyEight set her average overall approval rating at just 37.2 percent, among the lowest recorded for a vice president.

“Harris could provide her own reasons for moving on. Perhaps she and Biden could cut a deal for her to become the next attorney general — if he’s reelected. Biden then could tap someone else with executive experience who could reassure voters that the next vice president would be ready to take the reins should events require it. Democrats and Republicans alike would be relieved.” (Kathleen Parker, The Washington Post, March 15, 2024; If you encounter a pay wall, you can read it here.)

In the scenario I described, the ruling elite has Biden resign. Kamala becomes President, appoints Hillary VP, and resigns with the promise of a cabinet appointment, such as attorney general.

Hilary becomes president prior to the election, and the expectation that she would run a closer vote count, thanks to the stupidity of so many American women, makes it easier for the Democrats to steal the third national election in a row. Lew Rockwell has pointed out that the Democrats have many more ways of stealing the election.

Judging by WaPo Kathleen Parker, the Biden/Kamala ticket is too disfavored to permit a close enough election for a convincing theft. In order to continue the Democrat Party’s destruction of the United States, the Democrat presidential ticket has to have more credibility.

Obviously, the ruling elite agrees with my original analysis and is using the Washington Post to produce a more credible Democrat ticket.

If Kamala can be moved out, in goes Hillary. Then the agitation begins for Biden to step aside. With Hillary in the Oval Office prior to the election, the border conflict with Texas can be heated up, a national emergency declared, and the election suspended. The CIA can concoct another “Steele Dossier” and Trump can be blamed for the “Texas insurrection.”

If all fails and Trump wins, he will be assassinated before he can take office. See this.

It is not easy to see anything but a violent revolution by an awakened and determined people to save Americans from tyranny.

But where are these people?

How can they organize without all being arrested by the FBI as insurrectionists?
