

We Stand in Solidarity with The People of Haiti. End Neocolonialism in Haiti

17 years of a US-UN military occupation paved the way for 10 years of a US imposed dictatorship in our country, Haiti.

This regime has turned the police force into government death squads.

State corruption and land grabs are rampant..

Youth in popular neighborhoods are armed to the teeth by the government and the oligarchs to fight and kill one another, to create chaos in the streets, and to keep the people in these neighborhoods from joining anti-government protests.

For the first time in the history of our country wanton murders, kidnappings and rapes are a daily occurrence.

The image contains two promotional posters for a solidarity event. The left poster features a large black fist icon with a map of the United States overlaid on it, listing various cities. Below the fist are three call-to-action boxes: '#nodictatorshipinHaiti', '#downwithUSimperialism', and '#longliveHaiti' with a small Haitian flag. The main text reads 'INTERNATIONAL DAY OF SOLIDARITY WITH HAITI' and 'MONDAY MARCH 29, 2021 12 Noon to 3PM NYC: @ US Mission to UN - 45th St & 1st Avenue'. It lists several organizing groups including KOMOKODA, CODEPINK, and others. The right poster shows a crowd of people at a protest with signs that say 'HAITIAN LIVES MATTER' and 'NO MORE US MILITARY IN HAITI'. The text on this poster reads 'World Day of Solidarity with Haiti March 29, 2021 1-2 PM' and 'JFK Federal Building 15 Sudbury St, Boston'. It also mentions 'End US Neocolonialism in Haiti' and lists the organizing groups as 'Latin America Working Group of MAPA' and 'Latin America Solidarity Coalition WMASS'.

Despite this dire reality, the people of Haiti are in the streets fighting to overthrow neocolonialism and dictatorship, continuing our centuries-old struggle for true freedom and self-determination.

We are an emergent alliance working to build an international chain of solidarity with the people of Haiti. We are calling for a day of protests on Monday March 29 in multiple cities across the Americas and around the world in support of the struggle happening on the ground in Haiti.

We have chosen March 29th because it marks the anniversary of the Constitution of 1987 following the 29-year dictatorship of the Duvalier regime.

We invite you to join us in these efforts to stand in solidarity with the people of Haiti!

In Ottawa, we shall meet at 12:30 at the Haitian Embassy, 85 Albert St. Unit 1110 (Between Metcalfe and Elgin).

In Montreal, we will meet at 11:00 a.m at the Haitian Consulate, 300 Rue Léo Pariseau.

Come join us with your poster and voice!
