Global Research, September 07, 2021

Dear Global Research Readers and Authors,

The Centre for Research on Globalization (CRG) is Commemorating its Twentieth Anniversary on September 9, 2021.

The Global Research website was established on the 9th of September 2001, two days before the tragic events of September 11. Barely a few days later, Global Research had become a major news source on the New World Order and Washington’s “war on terrorism”.

We remain indebted to our authors and readers for their unbending support. Over the last twenty years, our focus has essentially been to center on the “unspoken truth”.

To commemorate our twentieth anniversary, we cordially invite our readers and authors to participate in a Webinar focussing on the current and ongoing corona crisis:
